TRIBUTE

This Tribute was written by Homer F. Lucas, Post Staff Writer of the Salisbury Evening Post. It is being reprinted by special permission of the Salisbury Post.

JOHN F. KENNEDY, A GREAT MAN

John F. Kennedy was truly a great man. He was a just man. He was a man who believed all men were equal in the sight of God. He was a man of peace.

He was a man determined, with all his soul and body, the ravages of war would never again befall mortal man. He was a man of love. He was a man born to riches. He was a man who loved the ordinary man, like you and me. He was a man of courage.

He was a man who was the butt of ridicule and nasty jokes as he displayed his courage.

He was a man of power. He was a man who never wielded, as history will evaluate, this power unjustly.

He was more than mere man to the men of the free-world. He was hope, a symbol.

He was a man who gave so much of himself to the people of the world. He was a man of principle. He was a kindly man. He was a man of easy formality. He was a man, above all, of magnificent heart.

He was a man who has passed into a new world from which no traveler, but one, has returned. But the world which he loved and served remains.

There are times in life when time stands still. Now is such time. The men of the free-world, the men of love, the men of peace, and the men of courage are groping in darkness for the light.

But the light is there in the principles and beliefs of John F. Kennedy, a truly great man.

Appreciation

A WORD

From the Editors

Life at Dunbar High for the class of '64 is finished, but the staff of the 1964 Bar has endeavored to recapture the tremendous number of important and interesting features of this life in pictures.

We sincerely hope that as time marches on, you will be able to find it a pleasure and a joy to recall and to rediscover past experiences.

To our patrons, business firms, faculty and all who contributed we take this opportunity to express our sincere thanks.

DEDICATED TO

MRS. NAOMI MITCHELL

The class of '64 hereby dedicates its annual to Mrs. Naomi Shuford Mitchell. For fifteen years Mrs. Mitchell has exemplified the high scholarship and citizenship that she has instilled into pupils. Her interest in students, her calm evaluation of each personality and her ability to uphold high standards are virtues we shall remember and revere.

DIRECTING SCHOOL AFFAIRS

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

"Look well to this day!" This is my exhortation to you seniors of 1964. As I sincerely congratulate you, I also earnestly challenge you.

Search well this day and salvage from your journey here the good, the true, the real. For, my friends, we live in a very demanding age, an era seeking nothing short of the best.

Avail yourselves of the opportunities and possibilities of this day. Carefully seek to bypass those experiences of doubt of squandering time. Begin now . . . . . Live to the height, breath, and depth of your being. Live fully!

Open wide the windows of your souls and drink deeply from every noble experience and remain active in the school of creating living. Keep sharpened the capacity to love the good, the beautiful, to understand and appreciate your fellow travelers. Cultivate the desire to be the best. There is no real master requirements. You only begin to build muscles of nobility when you strive to do more than that which is required. Create of life a quality and quantity beyond what is expected.

Whatever your endeavor in life, do not be afraid of honest toil, of keen competition, for of such stuff the great tests are made. "Our main business", our late President, J. F. Kennedy reminds us, "is to ask not what our country can do for us, but ask what we can do for our country."

Look well, therefore, to this day!

My sincere best wishes to each of you.

ASSEMBLY

Assembly at our school is more than just a gathering of students and teachers. The Dunbar High School weekly assembly program serves as a period for both religious and moral guidance. It affords the student an opportunity to make public appearances. It is a time devoted to special announcements, pertinent information and observances of holidays and seasons. The assemblies introduce the students to prominent persons both locally and nationally.

The pictures on these pages show the present governor of North Carolina as our guest speaker.

All assemblies have proved to be stimulating and aimed toward the betterment and enrichment of the students.

MUSIC

Through participation in the band and musical organization, the students obtain, music wise, wholesome enjoyment, lasting benefits, broader understandings and keener appreciation.

SCIENCES

In General science we learn about weather, machines, atoms, types of energy and water. The subject matter is based on the everyday activities of boys and girls.

Biology has a special place in the hearts of those who love to dissect animals. The classification of animals, plants and protists gives a headache to quite a few.

In chemistry we wonder why the building still stands. New words are learned-valence, sublimation, ionization and precipitation.

Physics, with its problems, as well as homework and vector quantity, is quite an experience. Incidentally, a multitude of processes of physics plays an important part in your life and influences you in many ways.

MATHEMATICS

General Mathematics is planned to help students achieve two objectives:

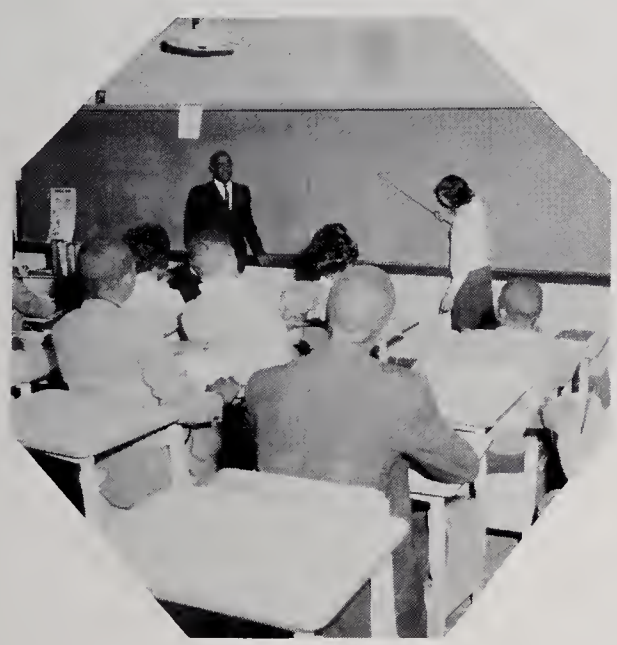
1. To develop the ability to perform the fundamental operations in mathematics with a high degree of accuracy.
2. To stimulate interest in the subject matter and uses of mathematics.

Algebra One

1. To prepare the students for further study in mathematics and to develop confidence in his ability to pursue such study.

In Algebra II we develop new mathematical concepts as reasonable and useful extensions of previous work in arithmetic and elementary Algebra.

Geometry enters into practically everything about us in our daily life - a knowledge of it is of importance to anyone who wishes to progress in a trade or profession and it gives us an opportunity of learning to appreciate and enjoy the nicer things of life.



COMMERCIAL EDUCATION

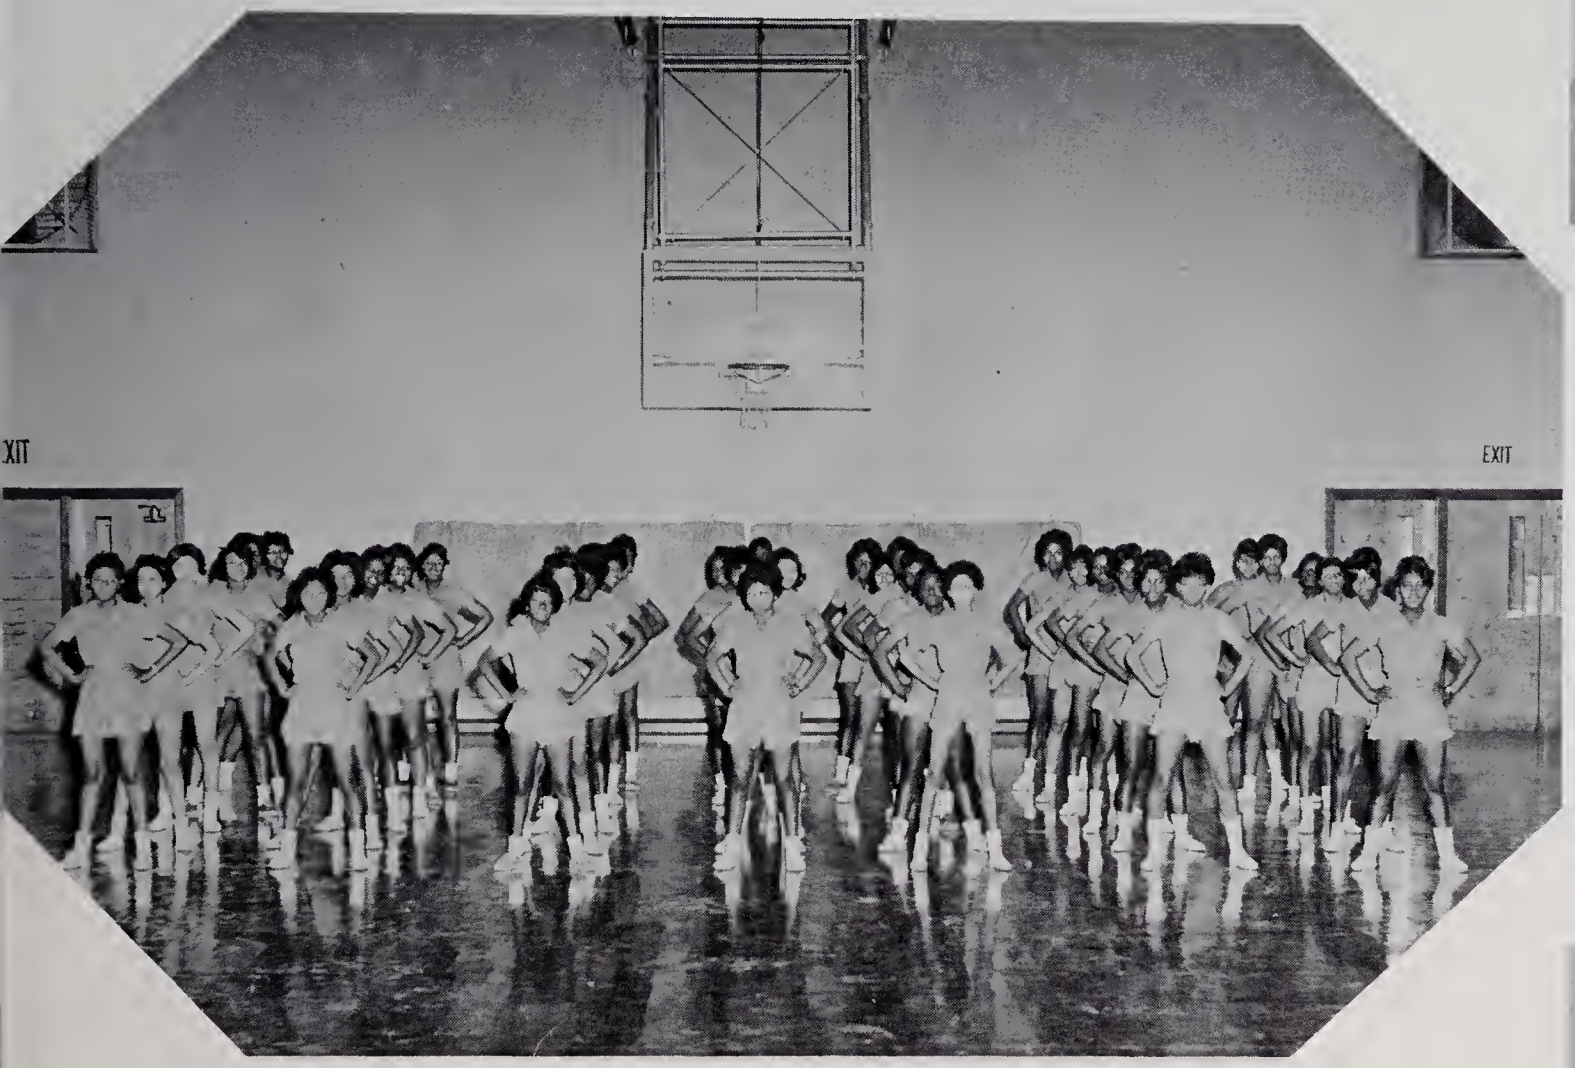
All students, college bound or noncollege bound, can fulfill many of their interests, needs, and career goals through education for business. The courses offered in Commercial Education this year, Typing I, Typing II, Bookkeeping, Office practice, are set up as elective courses for all students from the tenth grade to the twelfth grade.

Here you see a group of Bookkeeping students at work in their workbooks. This course places emphasis upon the application of bookkeeping principles to business problems and decisions.

These Typing I students are trying to develop their ability to operate and use the typewriter correctly and efficiently.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

The physical fitness of a nation influences greatly that nation's future. The physical education program is designed to develop physical fitness, sportsmanship, team participation, leadership, alertness, and a wholesome respect for the human body.



ENGLISH

Information of what is going on in the English Classes can be gleaned from the conversations among the students. The freshmen are heard reciting poems; sophomores are thrilled over the stories of Knighthood and, believe it or not, the boys are more courteous than usual; the juniors are heard reciting:

"So live, that when thou summons comes, etc;"
and the seniors are sure that:
"Life's but a walking shadow, a poor player
That struts and frets his hour upon the stage,
And then is heard no more."

FRENCH

The pattern of normal French speech is very different from English. However, with the aid of our audio equipment, we put forth every effort to imitate the native by listening to discs, recording our voices on tape, reciting proverbs, playing games and singing French folk songs.

J étudie le francais.

Vous regardez le professeur.

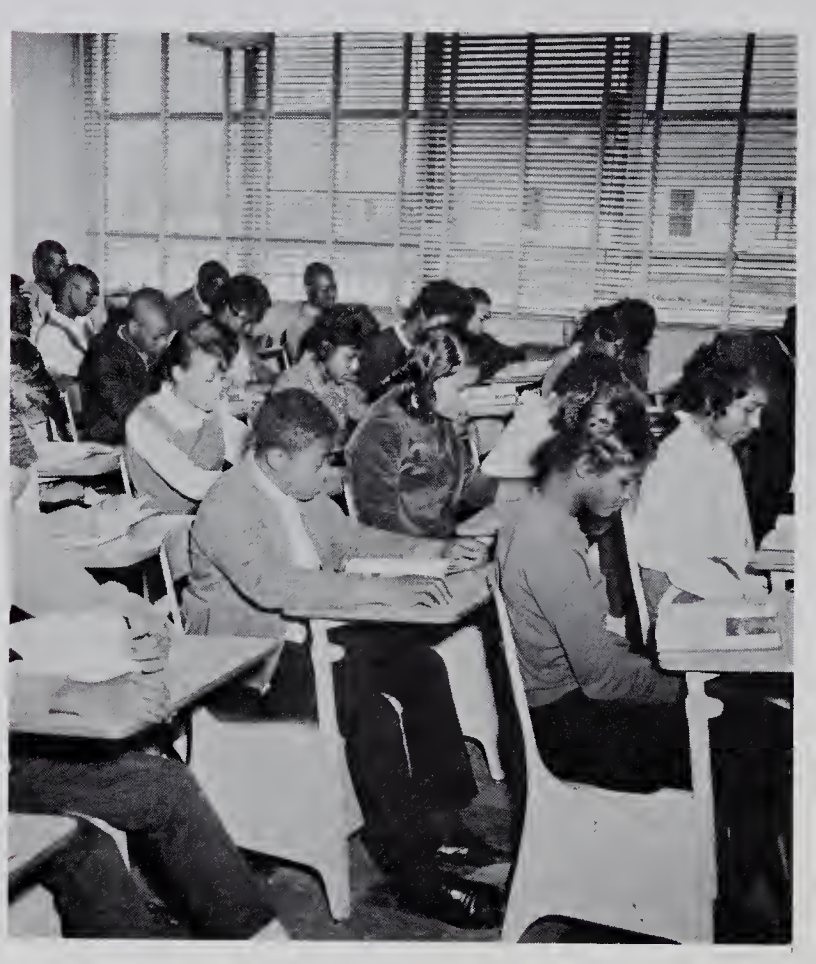
Mettez la craie dans la boite.

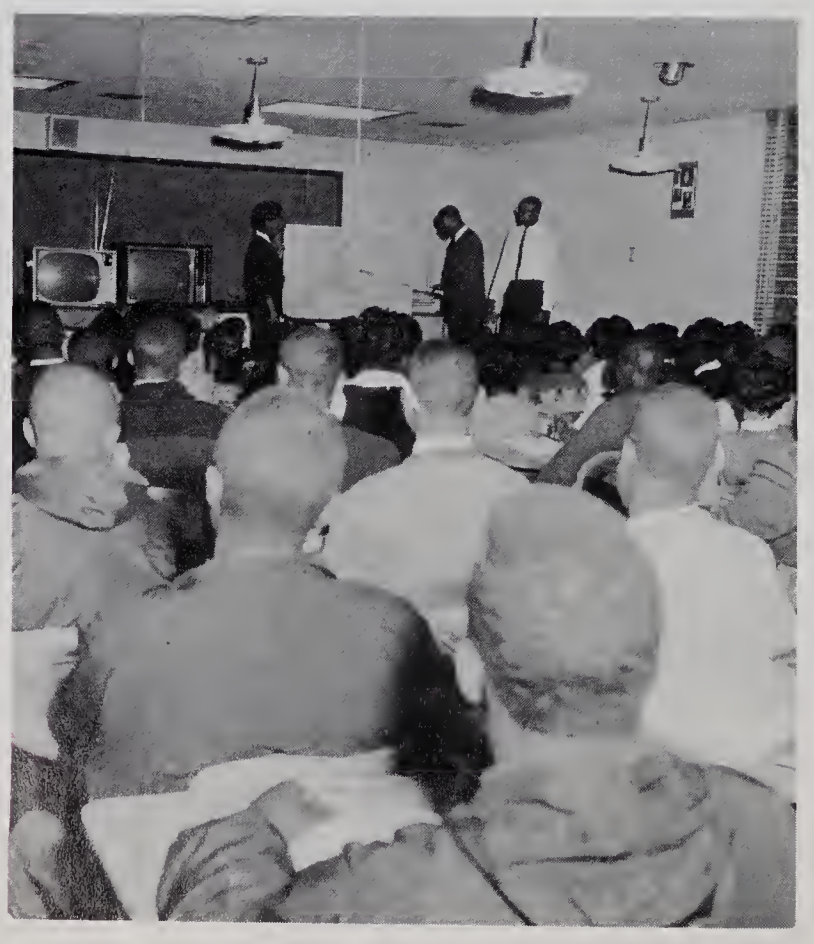
SOCIAL STUDIES

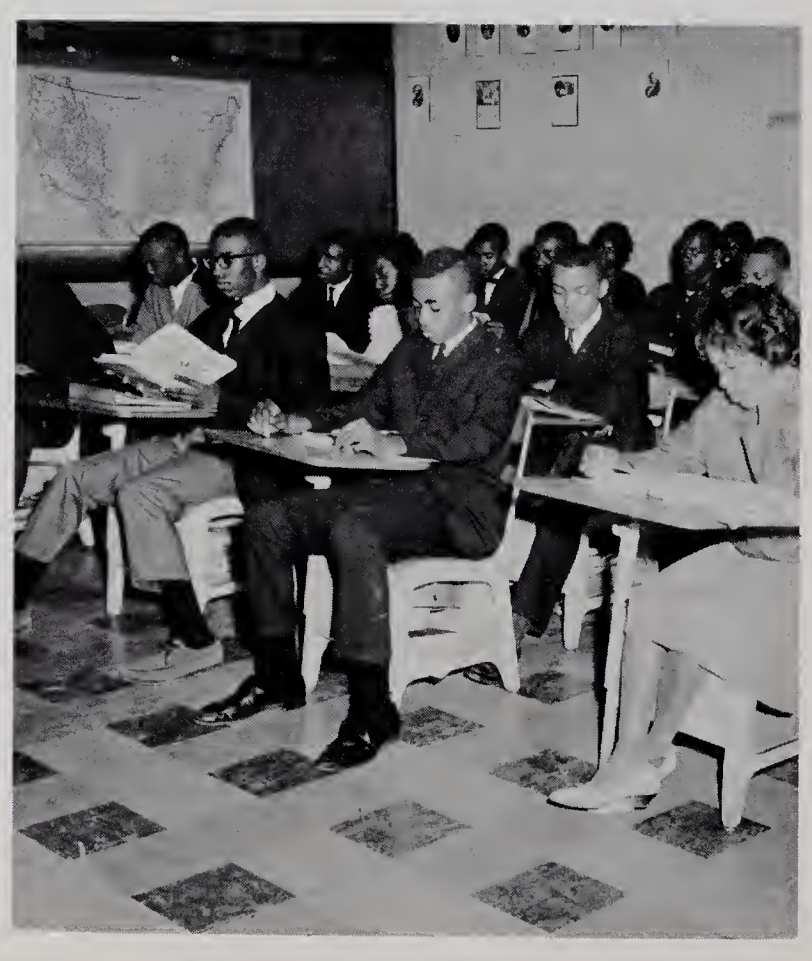
This is our third year in World History by the media of T.V.

Each student is keeping separate notebooks. Notes, notes, notes! Memorizing important dates and facts, given by Mrs. Leazer and Mr. Moore, have kept us busy all year.

Social Studies, in spite of all the dates, names, and facts that we must learn, helps us to appreciate our American heritage, as well as to serve as a guide for better citizens.







VOCATIONAL

Girls taking home economics obtain preparation for their future role as wives and mothers by practicing domestic activities such as cooking, serving children, studying household economics, and decorating. Ultra-modern facilities offer every opportunity for preparation for home life in our increasingly automatic world.

Since industry is an element of our basic culture, industrial arts assumes the responsibility of enhancing and enriching the experiences of young people in this important phase of our industrial world. Therefore we try to instill within each student the practical value of the course, hoping that this general knowledge will be helpful in the home, industry, agriculture, business, and the arts.

The Agriculture Department at Dunbar provides students with up-to-date classroom instruction on subjects ranging from Asparagus to Watermelons as well as a well rounded Shop and Adult Education Program.

Here we see a group of boys in a senior welding class being observed by Gilbert Winborne, Teacher of Agriculture. Other areas of Shop Instruction

Small Motors . . . . . including Care and Repairs.

Horticulture . . . . . emphasis on rooting and handling plants.

Electricity . . . . . program designed to teach adequate wiring and simple repairs to appliances and equipment.

Plumbing . . . . . modern equipment is used as boys are taught to install and repair plumbing fixtures and systems.

Woodwork . . . . . this includes phases of wood construction with emphasis this year on cabinet work.

In addition, each student enrolled in Agriculture is required to carry a supervised project.

ADULT EDUCATION

One never gets too old to learn. Those who, for various reasons, were unable to receive a high school diploma, are once more working toward that goal in the Dunbar Adult Class.

THE BIRTH OF A CLASS

The year was 1960; the memorable event was the birth of a new class at Dunbar High School. Our advisors were Mr. Koontz, Mr. Pemberton and Mr. Corry. Physically we weighed 103 pounds at birth. By participating in basketball, the student council, the band, Glee Club, NFA and NHA we grew and felt that at the end of the first year Dunbar had contributed a great deal to our growth. The greatest aid to our intellectual growth, besides our studies, were the honors we received in Math, English, Science and Citizenship.

We worked wholeheartedly in preparation for May Day. We were thrilled beyond words when Theola Beatty was crowned May Queen for 1960-61.

By the end of the year our weight had decreased by 5.

The year 1961 saw us somewhat smaller physically but mentally more developed. Mr. Koontz, Mr. Pemberton and Mr. Smith were our advisors for our Sophomore term.

It was during this year that Dunbar emerged on the football scene. What do we have to cheer about? The following boys: Isaiah Oglesby, Otis Evans, Parnell Corpening, Gerald Poe and Quentin Parker helped to make this team and oh what a team.

Ah, Oui, Les'eleves we will never forget the French Ball with its beautifully decorated Eiffel Tower. To mark this special year we went on two exciting trips to Winston-Salem and Marrow Mountain.

The year 1963 saw quite a few changes. We were developing mentally but our physical appearance was slowly decreasing. Our teachers and counselors saw that we had the complete schedule for mental growth. Our leaders were Mrs. Vails and Mrs. Poe. There were two social events to remember. The first was the Garden Party with the theme "An Enchanted Evening." Everyone contributed to the gala affair. The other was when our boys won the intramural Basketball trophy. What an honor for us!

Then came the sudden talk of beautiful gowns and charm school, for our Debs had emerged. As our junior year came to an end it found the jolly, jolly Juniors winning many honors in Scholastic and extracurricular activities. We were mature enough now to be seniors. More mentally developed than physically, because physically we dropped to 65 lbs.

With the arrival of August, 1963 we found ourselves seniors. Our leaders were Mesdames J. B. Kelly and L. B. Davis. To help us develop culturally we visited Livingstone College for Senior Day and gained much information about our local higher educational facilities. Not only were we benefited culturally but it helped us socially, for we met many new friends.

As the year progressed we continued growing mentally, culturally, socially but not too much physically. Even though the year is not over we feel that we are almost mentally, socially and culturally ready to depart. We have made history as a class at Dunbar High School. We feel that we have made a contribution to our school and community, and will pass on so that another class can be born.

CLASS POEM

Four years we have been together
Bound by the chains of care
Each year our hearts have grown stronger
Now parting time draws near.

The memory of Dunbar we will hold close
With all the love heaven disposes
Never thinking the happy times would last
Thank you for those times long past.

Among the things we shall hold dear
"Dunbar" will stand out in our vision
And we shall recall each year
As life completes its mission.

With hope, faith, God bless you we say
On this our graduation day
Heads up high and feeling so proud
Waiting for our names to be read aloud.

By Crystal Partlow

CLASS SONG

Dunbar High School we sing thee a song of praise.
Remembering happy days, we pledge thee our loyalty.
Dunbar High School may all we have learned to do keep every heart worthy to thee.

All hail! All hail!
Our banner is waving above,
All hail! All hail!
We honor the school that we love.

Dunbar High School let us sing this song to thee.
For even in future years our love will always be.
Dunbar High School has taught us what we know
Our actions will always show we're grateful to thee.

OUR SCHOOL SONG

Alma Mater Dear we praise thee,

Dear Ole White and Blue,

Hearty voices now uniting

Pledge devotion true.

Dear ole Dunbar . . . . . Dear ole Dunbar

Louder still we sing

Swell the song and lift the cry

Hail to Dunbar High.

High school days are swiftly passing

Soon we'll say good-bye,

Even then we'll pledge our love for

Dear ole Dunbar High.

Tune: Alma Mater
